

Why invest in this fund?

A combination of equity and fixed income, managed by a trio of experienced portfolio managers: Mark Schmehl, Jeff Moore and Michael Plage. Fidelity Multi-Asset Innovation Fund is a one-ticket solution that combines two different investment approaches to give you access to the higher upside potential of equity and the lower volatility of fixed income.

What is the strategy behind the fund?

Uses a flexible equity strategy aiming to capitalize on innovative ideas globally and a multi-sector fixed income strategy focused on risk mitigation.

A combination of two investment approaches that can help generate strong risk-adjusted returns through various market cycles.

Managed by highly experienced portfolio managers with long-term track records and supported by Fidelity's global research capabilities.

Here's how you get equity and fixed income in a one-ticket solution:
